The Insured will do whatever is reasonably necessary to secure such rights and will not do anything after an incident or event giving rise to a Claim or Loss to prejudice such rights. This Policy may be canceled by the Named Insured by giving written notice to the Underwriters through the entity listed for Administrative Notice in the Declarations stating when the cancellation will be effective.

This Policy may be canceled by the Underwriters only for non-payment of premium by mailing to the Named Insured at the address listed in the Declarations written notice stating when such cancellation will be effective. Such date of cancellation will not be less than 60 days (or 15 days in case of cancellation for non-payment of the premium) after the date of notice.

If this Policy is canceled in accordance with the paragraphs above, the earned premium will be computed pro rata; but the premium will be deemed fully earned if any Claim, or any circumstance that could reasonably be the basis for a Claim or Loss, is reported to the Underwriters on or before the date of cancellation. Payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.
